

COMMONER VOICES

LINCOLN, Neb., April 17 .- Weicome to the republic of China is voiced in an editorial appearing in The Commoner, the paper edited by Secretary of State Bryan here, the editorial says in part:

"The people of America will rejoice at China's entrance into her new career. It is a momentuous hour when the citizens of a great nation, becoming conscious of their rights and capacities, secure participation in the government whereunder they live. China has thrown off the yoke of the emperor and has established a republic. We welcome China to the sisterhood of republies. The government of America is the first nation intimating a desire to extend recognition. In no other nation will China find a larger or more sincere sympathy for her hopes and aspira-

THE NEW WATER CONTRACT.

THE Rogue River Canal Company has modified its water contract so that the purchaser is given 20 years to make the payments, and can arrange them to suit himself-nothing for the first year or two and graduated payments thereafter.

It is possible under this contract to make the water pay for itself on any sort of land. It removes the last remaining objection of the land owner and should result in the signing up of all the land in the valley for water.

The best paying orchard properties in the valley are The desire of the leaders in the secthe irrigated orchards. The best paying farms are the ate to "railroad" through a great irrigated farms. The best paying truck and vegetable mass of appropriation bills and other gardens are the irrigated ones. Here is a chance to irri- measures on which there is no degate nearly all of them.

With a greater acreage in orchard than in any of the for several days, fruit districts, the yield per acre is much less in the Rogue The bill has been reached on the river valley than in other districts-simply because there third reading file twice, but each is so little irrigation. Fruit growing can scarcely be time it was carefully sidestepped, as called a commercial proposition without irrigation.

If land prices are to be maintained, if land yields are was expected. The purpose in avoidto be increased, if the Rogue river valley is to become and of bills before the legislature to be remain prosperous, it must be put under water. The op-rushed through, and the policy may portunity is here, it is time to act.

The construction of the irrigation system means also the construction of the interurban trolley line. If the former is not built, the latter will not be-and why should it be? It is not needed under present conditions.
